

DELAWARE VALLEY
UNIVERSITY

GREEN AND GOLD DAY

SCHOOLS OF LIFE AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES AND BUSINESS AND HUMANITIES

10:00-10:30 Registration and Check In

Tours will be available for visitors who are arriving early from the Scholars' breakfast.

10:30-11:00 Welcome in Work Gymnasium

Enjoy an introduction from Admissions as well as Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Gloria Oikelome. Once the welcome is concluded, you will be relocated to the Life Sciences Building.

11:00-12:00 Faculty Meetings

Get to know our faculty. There will be classrooms throughout the Life Science Building with faculty members eager to share information and insights.

Academic Programs

Location

Business Administration -

101

Accounting, General Business, Management, Marketing, Sports Management

Interdisciplinary Studies

101

Counseling Psychology, Honors

102

Criminal Justice

103

History, Policy and Society

104

Secondary Education -

105

Agriculture, Biology, Chemistry, English, Math, General Science, Social Studies

Writing and Literary Studies, Writing and Publication

106

Media and Communication, Undecided Students

106

Animal Biotechnology and Conservation (ABC) -

109

Small Animal Science, Conservation Wildlife Management, Zoo Science

Biology -

2nd Floor Biology Lab

Botany, Environmental Biology, Microbiology and Biotechnology, Pre-Professional, Zoology

Chemistry

200

11:00-1:30 Main Campus Tours (which includes a residence hall).

We will also have the option to see a residence hall without doing the entire tour.

12:00-1:00 Quad Fair and Lunch

Meet key members of the campus community, get your free tshirts, and enjoy a lunch buffet.

Campus Community

Athletics • Academic Success (Accessibility Services/Accommodations) • Career and Professional Development (E360 and Career Services) • Housing and Residence Life • Campus Life (Health Services, Counseling, Student Involvement, Student Development and Public Safety) • Dining Services. • Financial Aid • Admissions/Deposit Station

Come back for A-DAY!

April 21-23

► delval.edu/aday23

PHOTO OP!

Be sure to stop by the tent on the quad where our Media and Communication Department students will have a Green Screen set up to transport you "around the world" and take pictures of you to show the places DelVal can take you!

WHO DO YOU WANT TO BE?

JORDAN FARLOW '22, developed and presented a business plan for his start-up company, Guard Gear. During his time at DelVal, he worked at DelVal's Center for Student Professional Development helping students find internships. Jordan's passion for launching his own business and hopes to present his work at DelVal's Spark Bowl, a "Shark Tank"-like competition. He plans to complete his MBA through DelVal's 4 +1 Program, which allows students to gain a master's in just one additional year of study!

BE AN ENTREPRENEUR.

Jordan Farlow '22
Business Administration

OWN A PRIVATE PRACTICE.

Kyla Dannelke '11, MA, LCPC
*Counseling Psychology
Owner of Open Book Therapy*

DR. REBECCA HAMILTON '16, was featured in a "Best Vets of Raleigh" list. The biology major, nutrition and small animal science minor is a veterinarian at Oak Heart Veterinary Hospital at South Saunders in Raleigh, North Carolina, which was named on the Best Vets of Raleigh list on GoodyPet.com. Congrats Dr. Hamilton!

BE A VETERINARIAN.

Dr. Rebecca Hamilton '16
Biology

