

Application For Military Scholars for America (MSA) Tuition Reduction Program

ELIGIBILITY

The Delaware Valley University Military Scholars for America (MSA) Tuition Reduction Program is available to military personnel who are either on active duty or serving as a monthly drilling reservist. This program is offered only to part-time undergraduate students enrolled in Continuing & Professional Studies (CPS) or Master's level graduate students who have applied and been accepted to the school and are pursuing a degree program. The program is not open to full-time undergraduate students, students in the Speech-Language Pathology (M.S.), Physician Assistant Studies (MSPAS), or Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership programs. Students who are using the Post 9/11 GI Bill or VA Chapter 31 (Vocational Rehabilitation Program) are eligible for this program only when their VA educational benefits under these programs have expired. Because this program is administered solely at the discretion of the University, the school's decision on this application is final and not subject to appeal.
