

Instructor Bios

Jason Jaffe & Lindsay Smith

Mr. Jason Jaffe, M.Ed.
Director of Technology
& Innovation
Central Bucks SD

Jason Jaffe is in his ninth year of serving as Director of Technology and Innovation for the Central Bucks School District. Prior to this position, he served as Supervisor of Education Technology, Technology Staff Developer, and Elementary Teacher for Central Bucks Schools. Jason has broad system wide responsibilities for the overall planning, coordination, and implementation of technology vision for the school district. He is a motivational leader who is involved with the professional development of district staff to ensure efficient systems, effective use of technology for productivity and learning, and encouraging others to embrace innovation.

- Superintendent Letter of Eligibility and Educational Leadership Certificate from Delaware Valley University.
- Master's degree in technology education from Arcadia University.
- Instructional Technology Certificate from St. Joseph's University.
- Bachelor of Science in elementary education from the University of Maryland.

Mrs. Lindsay Smith, M.Ed.
Asst. Dir. of Technology
& Innovation
Central Bucks SD

Lindsay Smith has served in Central Bucks School District in several capacities: Elementary teacher, QUEST teacher, and Supervisor of Educational Technology. In her current role of Assistant Director Prior to this position, Lindsay oversees Educational Technology throughout the district and is passionate about creating clear, effective, and meaningful processes, procedures, and professional development related to technology and innovation, including Artificial Intelligence. She also co-leads the CB Realignment initiative. Lindsay was named Pennsylvania's Technology Administrator of the in 2023 by PETE&C, speaks on educational technology topics at state and national conferences, and considers herself a lifelong learner.

- Superintendent Letter of Eligibility and Educational Leadership Certificate from Delaware Valley University.
- Master's degree in Special Education from Cabrini University.
- Bachelor of Science in elementary education from the Penn State University.
- Certificates in Middle School Math & Middle School English.