

DelVal's Core Values call all members of our academic community to take a strong and active stand against discrimination and harassment in any form. In particular, there is no place for sexual harassment in our community. The complete DelVal Sexual Harassment policy can be found on the DelVal website at www.delval.edu.

This form is for making a formal complaint of sexual harassment to the University. Complainants are reminded that any party to a complaint of sexual harassment is entitled to the advisor of their choice at any meeting with University staff. More information about advisors can be found in DelVal Sexual Harassment Policy, Section XII. Grievance Process: Notifications, Advisors, and Emergency Removal.

DelVal provides access to a number of on and off campus resources for parties to a complaint of sexual harassment as outlined in XXI. Comprehensive Resource and Contact List
